NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK!
April 5-11

ART EXHIBITS

The delicate art of Victor Ing will grace the walls of the Baxter Room in the Library throughout the month of March.

Mr. Ing is a Morton Grove artist and graphic designer who was born in Canton, China and was educated at the Chicago Art Institute, the University of Illinois, and the Illinois Institute of Technology. He has won countless awards for his work.

In April, the paintings of Olive Vorsatz, also a Morton Grove artist, will be exhibited.

Berta Chakow will exhibit her paintings during the month of May. Mrs. Chakow received her training at the Art Institute of Chicago and the San Miguel Allende Institute in Mexico. She has exhibited her work at the Aurelia Galleries in Evanston.

ART DEMONSTRATION

Helen Van Tempera, who exhibited her work at the Library during the winter, will present an art demonstration on Tues., March 31 at 7:30.

She will paint a new England scene and explain her technique as she develops the picture. Mrs. Van Tempera is a graduate of the Art Institute of Chicago with a B.A. in Art Education.

TRAVELOGS

There will be no March travelog because of the film presentation, "That's Entertainment." The April travelog will be "Discover America" and the May travelog will be "Ancient Egypt", featuring the slides of Mr. & Mrs. Raymond Kliphardt. See the CALENDAR on page 2 for dates and times.

DON'T MISS THE TERRIFIC MOVIES IN THE ADULT FEATURE FILM SERIES ON WEDNESDAYS! SEE CALENDAR ON PAGE 2.

ACTING UP!

"Old is an O.K. word" is the message of the "ACTING UP!" theater troupe which will present its humorous show in the Baxter Room on Sunday, March 15 at 2:30 P.M.

"ACTING UP!" is sponsored by Oakton Community College and is a very special improvisational drama troupe made up of people over the age of 60 who write and perform their own work.

The troupe has been featured in 3 documentary movies, has appeared on CBS-TV, and has performed at theatre conferences throughout the state of Illinois.

Come to the Library and welcome this talented group of people when they present "ACTING UP!"

BEATLE MEMORIES

THE BEATLES are coming to the Morton Grove Public Library! They are coming in the persons of high school students John and Tom Whelan, Paul Wilm and Gary Witz who will present "BEATLE MEMORIES" on Friday, May 1 at 7 P.M. and Saturday, May 2 at 2 P.M.

The boys will imitate the Beatles as they present a full program of the music that made the English group famous. Everyone, especially young adults, is invited to the Library to hear and enjoy the Beatles once again!

A BUTTON IN YOUR EAR

On Thursday, March 12 at 7:30 P.M., the program "A BUTTON IN YOUR EAR" will be presented by Richard Kaufman from the Beltone Hearing Aid Center. His lecture and slide program will illustrate what the hard-of-hearing hear as contrasted with the hearing of normal ears. A question and answer period will follow the lecture and everyone is welcome.

BOTANIC GARDENS

Spring is here and it's time to go outside and plant! The BOTANIC GARDEN OF CHICAGO will present a 2-part program on landscaping and gardening at the Library. On Thurs., April 23 at 7:30 P.M., Barbara Schwarz, horticulturist, will talk on "Caring for the Home Landscape" and on Thurs., April 30 at 7:30 P.M. she will speak on "Planning & Planting the Flower & Vegetable Gardens." All gardeners are welcome.

STRETCH AND SEW

The styles and colors of Spring will be featured in a program on STRETCH AND SEW to be presented on Thurs., March 26 at 7:30 P.M.

Mrs. Loretta Kandafer will discuss new Spring fabrics and will also demonstrate the Stretch and Sew technique by actually sewing a garment.

SELF-DEFENSE

Attention Women! A 2-part program on self-defense for women, "Hit and Run", will be held at the Library on Thurs., May 7 and Thurs. May 14 at 7:30 P.M.

This valuable mini-course, taught by Mack Newton, Director of the Newton Taekwon-Do Center, will include specific techniques of counterattack to assault and rape, using common articles as weapons. Physical fitness and weight control will also be stressed and the whole program should be beneficial to everyone.

LIBRARY CLOSINGS

The Library will be closed on EASTER SUNDAY, April 19 and on MEMORIAL DAY, Monday, May 25.

BOOK REVIEWS

Today at 92, Georgia O'Keeffe stands at the pinnacle of the art world. Her unique paintings mirror her great talent and fierce independence.

Barbara Todd will review the life and career of this legendary woman when she presents PORTRAIT OF AN ARTIST - a Biography of Georgia O'Keeffe by Laurie Lisle on Sunday, March 8 at 2:30 and Monday, March 9 at 7:30 P.M. in the Baxter Room.

What if Prince Charles of England became King and married a wealthy American girl? What if she had independent ideas about her duties as the Queen of England?

Therein lies the intriguing story of "Caroline R" by Tim Heald, to be reviewed on Sunday, April 5 at 2:30 and Monday, April 6 at 7:30 P.M.

Here is a fresh look at the uncertain future of English royalty and the rigid control that keeps it alive. Don't miss this unusual story!

MONEY MANAGEMENT

A Money Management Seminar will be conducted by Waddell and Reed Financial Services on Thurs., April 9 and Thurs., April 16 at 7:30 P.M. at the Library.

Speakers Craig Shaffer, Richard Bazuin, & Michael Freeman will discuss basic investment planning, forms of insurance, tax shelters, estates, and wills. The public is welcome to attend.
